

24-25 Special Conditions Application

If your family's financial situation has changed from what is reported on the 2024-2025 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), the Office of Financial Aid may be able to reevaluate your financial need, and review how this change in need could adjust your Financial Aid eligibility. Review the application in full, and submit all required documents. Incomplete applications will not be reviewed. Completion of this application does not guarantee a change in eligibility.

The following items are not considered for special conditions:

- Expenses related to personal living (i.e. payments on any consumer or education loan, payments on back taxes owed to the IRS).
- Bankruptcy, foreclosures or collection costs associated with outstanding debts
- Debt forgiveness that reflects as income on a tax return
- Lottery or gambling winnings or losses
- Cost of college expenses incurred for any sibling seeking a degree or a parent seeking a degree
- Cost of college courses taken while in high school
- Graduate or doctoral students

This is not an all-inclusive list, if you are unsure if your circumstance can be considered for review, contact our office.
